

ARCHITECTURE by CHILDREN DRAWING CONTEST 2017

Do you have a favorite spot in Iowa to read? From a quiet nook in the public library, to a sunny spot on your front porch swing, or maybe the stairs of your school - where do you best like to sit with a good book? Reading is a great way to open our minds - especially when we're in a place that makes us feel happy and comfortable. So get creative! Think of the reading spot you love best and capture it with a hand drawing on the entry form. Make sure it's in Iowa! You'll have a chance to win prize money, and be featured on our website. New this year - the winners will even get their art featured at their local library, and on the Iowa Library Association social media - at <https://www.facebook.com/iowaLibAssoc/>!

Feel free to use your favorite way of drawing - crayons, pencils, or pens.

Entries must be received by Friday, February 3rd, 2017 and will not be returned.
Send entries to: Iowa Architectural Foundation, 400 Locust Street, Suite 100, Des Moines, IA 50309
A statewide winner from each age group (Kindergarten-3rd Grade & 4th-6th Grade) will win a $50 cash prize. One regional winner from each age group will win a $25 cash prize. Check out the Foundation's website below for regions.
